
Audi A4/A5/Q5 interface manual

This interface offers RGB, AV inserting onto A4/A5/Q5 panel in a plug-n-play way without cutting wire or using solders. It also offers these functions:

- super Stable, Clear and high-resolution RGB processing for Navigation map display.
- automatic camera switch.
- Optional adjustable reverse guideline display for helping reversing.
- Speed pulse, Reverse, Night lamp signals provided for the aftermarket navigation.

(1) Connections

One 70cm LVDS cable to monitor.

The interface box can be connected with the CAN box, which provides ACC, Reverse, switch signals and speed pulses. The Can box needs to be connected to the CAR with 4 signals: BATT, GND, CAN+, CAN-. The ACC can also be used for Extra DVD or TV. [max 0.5A], The Reverse can be used for automatic camera switch.

Navigation: RGS in

DVD/TV/ Camera: AV

The daughter board behind the monitor:

The original cable should be inserted onto the daughter board, while the daughter board can be inserted into Panel by the 10P connector, One M2 screw will fix the daughter board, there are noses to prevent the daughter board, and cable to be inserted in the wrong direction.

